Financing Your Business Workshop

Tuesday, November 9, 2021
2 PM - 3:30 PM

This free workshop will serve as a guideline to help you begin on the right track for your start-up or operating business. In recovering from the pandemic, it is important for entrepreneurs to be informed and prepared to deal with new challenges and opportunities. You will walk away with information about the importance of utilizing a business plan, various financing options, resources for start-ups, and an overall better understanding of the fundamentals for business.
